PRINCIPLES

EXPLORE'S MISSION IS THREEFOLD

to champion the selfless acts of others explore showcases individuals who have dedicated their lives to improving the human condition. We believe they are true heroes, and hope that others will benefit from learning about their work through our films and photography and connecting with them through our minds.

to create a portal to humanity explore archives non-profit work from all over the world, demystifying foreign people and places in order to show the common humanity we all share.

to inspire lifelong learning explore is for everyone who enjoys learning new things and understands that education is a lifelong pursuit. To that end, explore provides a variety of educational resources – from articles to films and photographs to interactive maps – to encourage everyone to “never stop learning.” We like to think of ourselves as Sesame Street for adults.
