Aloha Charles,

On behalf of the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation, we wanted to extend a big mahalo to you and the Annenberg Foundation for the generous donation of $25,000 in the name of Duke Kahanamoku.

We were thrilled to have you join us for the special 'Sunset on the Beach' showing of Guardians of the Sea during Duke's OceanFest last August. The film's inspiring tribute to Duke, Eddie Aikau, and the lifeguards of Oahu's North Shore was recognition richly deserved for a skill too often overlooked by the general populace - that of the Hawaiian waterman.

ODKF shares in the Annenberg Foundation's commitment to honor Hawaii's kane and wahine o ke kai (men and women of the sea), as we continue to fulfill our mission of supporting Hawaii's scholar-athletes and nonprofit organizations competing in 'Duke sports' - water sports and volleyball.

You will be pleased to know that ODKF designated $201,000 in scholarships and grants in 2008 - representing a 40 percent increase over the year prior and our largest total ever. We awarded 60 college scholarships last year, also our largest number ever, and the recipients were an outstanding collection of Hawaii students excelling both academically and in water sports.

The Annenberg Foundation's contribution is a tremendously valuable and timely gift - coming at a time when our nation's economic troubles is making it more of a challenge to maintain our level of contributions for those who stand to benefit most - the youth of Hawaii.

Rest assured, the Foundation's gift will be put to good use in bolstering our operations as directed. We are a lean, volunteer-driven, non-profit organization with little overhead and only one half-time paid staff member.

Again, mahalo for supporting our mission in memory of Duke Kahanamoku - Hawaii's champion waterman.

With Warmest Aloha,

Dr. Malia Kamisugi
President
Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation

Duke's Creed:

"In Hawai'i, we greet friends, loved ones or strangers with Aloha, which means with love. Aloha is the key word to the universal spirit of real hospitality, which makes Hawai'i renowned as the world's center of understanding and fellowship. Try meeting or leaving people with Aloha. You'll be surprised by their reaction. I believe it and it is my creed. Aloha to you."
